A Pilgrim's Guide to THE LANDS OF ST PAUL Greece Turkey Malta Cyprus

A new edition of the definitive guide to the sites visited by St. Paul on his three missionary journeys, and journey to Rome. Fully updated and redesigned with new maps and plans, and many new colour photographs. Expanded, with new sections on St John and his writing of the Book of Revelation on the island of Patmos, together with other Greek islands that may be visited as part of your holiday. Highlights include: the Seven Churches of the Revelation, notably Ephesus and Pergamum; the splendours of Istanbul and Athens; the glories of Ancient Greece and Macedonia. The islands of Cyprus and Malta, with their layers of history, are detailed. These lands are rich in reminders of early Christian communities and the evangelical missions to establish and grow them. This is an essential aid to prepare for a pilgrimage and a quality souvenir to evoke many lasting memories.

ABOUT THE AUTHORS

Ray Goodburn has led and organized groups to the lands of St Paul and the Revelation over many years. For 30 years he was a Methodist minister, leading groups to the Holy Land and various other countries. In the years since then he has worked as a leading Christian tour operator. He has put his considerable knowledge to good use as a travel author, the result being three more guides in this Series: the Holy Land; Oberammergau and its Passion Play; and Rome and Assisi. Ray lives in Nottinghamshire, England.

Andrew Houseley founded Pilgrim Books with his father in 1997. The family's background in pilgrimage travel was not his first choice of career, starting out in the retail wines and spirits trade, moving on to Human Resources management and then pilgrimage publishing. A graduate of Lancaster University, England, Andrew is the author of A Pilgrim's Guide to Fatima and the series of walking guides to the Camino de Santiago. He has homes in Suffolk, England and within two hours of the sites of Paul's 'Macedonian call'.
